

Democratic Candidates

Senator Mark Kelly

Current United States Senator Mark Kelly is the Democratic Nominee for U.S Senate in Arizona. He has served as U.S. Senator since 2020 and is one of several candidates across the country facing a battleground race that will determine which party controls the United States Senate. A U.S. Navy Veteran and former NASA astronaut, Mark Kelly has been a champion of fighting for working-class families across Arizona and has been named the most bipartisan freshman Democratic Senator.

Campaign Promises

Protecting social security and Medicare

Lowering Taxes for the Middle Class

Supporting our Veterans

Strengthening Arizona's Economy and small businesses

Defending a Woman's Right to Choose

Ensuring Access to a Quality Education

Fixing Arizona's Infrastructure

Fixing the Broken Immigration System

Protecting the Environment and Combating Climate Change

Lowering prescription drug costs

Protecting Taxpayer Dollars

Government Transparency/Accountability

Democratic Candidates

Arizona Secretary of State Katie Hobbs

Current Arizona Secretary of State Katie Hobbs is the Democratic Nominee for Governor in Arizona. She is currently serving her first term as Secretary of State since 2019. Prior public service includes being the Minority Leader of the Arizona Senate from 2015 to 2019, being a member of the Arizona Senate from 2013 to 2019, and being a member of the Arizona House of Representatives from 2011 to 2013.

Campaign Promises

Protecting Arizona's water and natural resources

Expanding Access to Affordable Health Care

Supporting Our Veterans

Protecting Our Right to Vote

Strengthening Arizona's Economy

Defending a Woman's Right to Choose

Ensuring Access to a Quality Education

Uplifting Tribal Communities

Fixing the Broken Immigration System

Protecting the Environment & Combating Climate Change

Investing in Minority Owned Businesses

Government Transparency/Accountability

Ensuring Access to a Quality Childcare