Common Questions about Voting:

Do I need an I.D. To Vote? What I.D. Should I bring with me to the Polls?

You will need to present an ID to vote in person in Arizona, with the following list being acceptable forms of I.D: This is either ONE photo ID (List 1), or TWO non-photo ID (List 2), or a combination (List 3) Your ID must bear your name and address.

List 1 - Acceptable forms of valid (non-expired) photo ID include (present 1):
Arizona driver's license Arizona non-driver's identification tribal enrollment card or other form of tribal identification
US federal, state or local government-issued identification
The name and address on your photo ID must reasonably match your name and address in the signature roster or e-pollbook List 2 - Acceptable forms of non-photo ID include (present 2, showing your current name and address):

utility bill dated within 90 days of the election
utility bill dated within 90 days of the election
valid Arizona vehicle registration Indian census card
property tax statement
tribal enrollment card or other form of tribal identification Arizona vehicle insurance card recorder's certificate valid US federal, state, or local government issued identification, including a voter registration card issued by the County Recorder any mailing to the elector marked "Official Election Material"
Any document from List 2 may be presented electronically, such as on a tablet or smartphone List 3 - If you are unable to produce 1 photo ID or 2 non-photo IDs, you may show:
any valid photo ID with an address that does not match the precinct register accompanied by a non-photo ID with an address that matches the precinct register

US Passport or passport card without address and one valid item of non-photo ID
US Military ID without address and one valid item of non-photo ID Members of federally-recognized tribes may present a tribal ID that does not contain an address or photo in order to cast a provisional ballot. Acceptable tribal ID includes:
tribal identification card issued under the authority of the Bureau of Indian Affairs or a federally-recognized Native American tribe tribal enrollment card issued under the authority of the Bureau of Indian Affairs or a federally-recognized Native American tribe Certificate of Indian Blood issued under the authority of the Bureau of Indian Affairs or a federally-recognized Native American tribe
